About

I have always been fascinated by people and why they do what they do. I've spent quite a bit of my life analyzing individuals, events, and ideas, so that I could better understand the world and my place in it.

This passion for getting to know how the world around me operates fueled my studies in college, and eventually led me to take on the family tradition of packing a suitcase and moving to a foreign country.

Being left to my own devices in such a strange and diverse environment was daunting at first, but I adapted and overcame as challenges were presented to me. That's me in a nutshell. No matter the task at hand, I will always find a way to succeed.

Now, I use the experience and perseverance I gained abroad to help me communicate and problem solve better, whether at work as a Take-out Specialist and team leader at Chipotle Mexican Grill or during my ventures into the wilderness of Colorado.

I'm well-versed in analytics, communication, planning and development, and research.

If you'd like to know more about me, and how I can be an asset to you, please reach out to me through my email (ChadKovacs18@gmail.com).
